In this game overflowing with trouble
We need to decide how to gain
The road to freedom
Is full of unexpected obstacles

Hey, where are you from
And where are you headed to?
My life's purpose is finding
The answer to that

Try again try again
Try again now
Try again try again
So I wanna know

Try again try again
Try again now
Try again try again
So I wanna know
I don't wanna know

I'm enjoying the blur
Between what's real and what's a lie
Everyday unfolds like clockwork
I want to escape from this maze

It doesn't matter
What you tell anybody
As long as I can hear
Your nectarine sweet voice

Try again try again
Try again now
Try again try again
Oh what do you want?

Try again try again
Try again now
Try again try again
Oh what do you want?

Hold me until I breathe
My last breath
Let's go open that door
We've been searching for

Try again try again

Try again now
Try again try again
So I wanna know

Try again try again
Try again now
Try again try again
So I wanna know
