

Whoo! Two double oh six
I'm talking about this summer
You wanna hear it? Yeah

The crashing waves and the cool cool breeze
I send these things as a gift to you
I hope you will like what I send you
Under an August sky

Wow
I stretch out my hand
Out to the high clear sky
As the sunlight shines on my whole body
My chest is pounding with excitement
As I have an unforgettable summer
Because you are here with me

I push aside my pain and hurt
And face tomorrow only holding onto freedom

Because the sun is above us
Right now, shining endlessly
Believe me, this summer won't end until eternity
It's all right to keep enjoying
Those feelings you like, everything's all right
We can do anything, reaching out for the hot world
Wow

At the place the southern wind blows
On the road I saw you earlier
There's a wavering mirage
Dreams are there to help us
Take a step forward
With a strong heart

I have no choice, under tonight's evening sun
I'll give it my all and open the door

Looking up at the sky, looking down at the ocean
We're over there, living
I believe you that we'll miraculously meet this summer
I'll soar thru it and laugh it out
If I'm with you, everything's all right
Let's head towards that endless clear sky

Uh! Uh! Here we go
Hey, you can breathe, it's all right
Just see the night, close your eyes
Imagine all the wonderful things that can be
And to you and me, and the sky

Touching your voice
And feels like there's never end
How to say that this was a memory
Under your love, under your world
Blow your lips , every kiss
You and I, here we go around

Because the sun is above us
Right now, shining endlessly
Believe me, this summer won't end until eternity
