It's time for love somebody to love
(Maybe it's you)
Somebody to love, somebody to love

It's time for love, somebody to love
I'm right here
A new life has begun

The warm night breezes lightly brushes my cheek
Just like the night I spent with someone
I can't change the painful dreams on my own
I want to secure this one and only love

If only the summer could secretly reveal my destiny
I want to believe that my courage will perform a miracle

It's time for love, somebody to love
I don't want to love the same way
A new me has started
Somebody to love, somebody to love

I'm searching for love
The coming sun will definitely stay by my side

Maybe it's you

If things go my way, then there will be no repeats
The person I am right now is able to talk like this

If only the summer could bring a small greeting
I want to forget my tears and love

It's time for love, somebody to love
I'm right here
A new life has begun
Somebody to love, somebody to love
I'm searching for love
During the summer, the winds blow towards you

Inbetween the clouds in the night sky, the stars sparkle
My love for you cannot be seen, but it has already started
Oh love, love, love, love
(I say)

It's time for love, somebody to love
I don't want to love the same way twice
A new me has started
Somebody to love, somebody to love
I'm searching for love
The coming sun will definitely stay by my side

I want to hold onto a true love for eternity

It's time for love somebody to love
(Maybe it's you)
Somebody to love, somebody to love
