Just a beautiful (hey hey hey)
Sh... Watch out

Aha, yeah
I'm back

Please don't wake me up
I didn't sleep at all last night
Countless girls all told me that they like me
Saying I look like an idol or something

To be honest, I'm not that surprised
All eyes are locked on me, wherever I go
Even if it gets uncomfortable, what can I do
It's always been this way
Tonight, like any night, I burn like a fire

She got that something
You're not enough for me, so stop baby
You may look haughty, but
I can see you staring at me
You're going to have to do better than that

She got that something
If you hesitate, I'll cry baby
If you smoothly approach me
Without getting caught
I might just turn a blind eye and play along

If I'm a bad guy
If I'm a guy who makes girls cry
It might be better for you to step away before you get hurt
Though I know you'd never be able to refuse me

Normal and average
If you're sick of guys like that
Then come put it all in, a dangerous come in
The two of us will burn like a fire

She got that something
You're not enough for me, so stop baby
You may look haughty, but
I can see you staring at me
You're going to have to do better than that

She got that something
If you hesitate, I'll cry baby
If you smoothly approach me
Without getting caught
I might just turn a blind eye and play along

Get excited for what's to come tonight, Friday night
An amazing night that could steal your breath away

Everyone's into it and having a good time
So why are you so serious?
Are you shy, you keep hovering around me
Round and round and round
Round round round

1, 2, 3

She got that something
For me, you're just missing a little something
If all you do is look for an opportunity
It will already be too late no no no no

She got that something

You're not enough for me, so stop baby
You may look haughty, but
I can see you staring at me
You're going to have to do better than that

She got that something
If you hesitate, I'll cry baby
If you smoothly approach me
Without getting caught
I might just turn a blind eye and play along

Yeah
Hey hey
Hey hey
