Ah oooooooooooo

I want you to stay in my heart
I need your love that brings tears to my eyes

In the photo there were two people
With innocent smiles blooming on their faces
Ordering the matching black tea
Without seeing this day coming

Although this terrace is still the same
With nostalgic feeling
You are the reason I started to weep

Inviting once again, smiling once again
If we could meet at this place one more time
I will hold your hands and take an oath indeed

Can't even hear your voice
Can't even call your name
At least if I could have met you in our dreams
I would for sure hold you tight

But I can't even meet with you
Can't even tell you that I love you
It's driving me crazy pitifully
With sorrowfully sorrowful love

Ah I could do nothing but cry
Ah falling in sorrowfully sorrowful love

If I were just to delude the loneliness
Anyone else would be fine for me
But I just can't stop laying over your image
Which makes me feel even more lonely

Someday when I walk pass this corner
You might appear in front of me after I make the turn
That is the miracle I keep dreaming of

No matter it's by chance or it's inevitable
If we could meet once again on this street
I will grab your hands and take you away indeed

I want to lean on your shoulder
I just don't want to take my eyes off you
At least if I could have met you in our dreams
I would for sure kiss you firmly

I will never forget about you
And my heart will never change
Falling for you almost painfully
With sorrowfully sorrowful love

What have you been doing?
Have you been happy?
No no no no no no
You are still
Still stay forever in my heart
You are now
Still in my heart, in my heart

I just wanted to hold your hands
And take an oath, I love you

Can't even hear your voice
Can't even call your name
At least if I could have met you in our dreams
I would for sure hold you tight

But I can't even meet with you
Can't event tell you that I love you
It's driving me crazy pitifully
With sorrowfully sorrowful love

Ah falling in sorrowfully sorrowful love

I want you to stay in my heart
I need your love that brings tears to my eyes
