Oh chain of love

I love you oh girl

Now listen to me, come on girl
I love you, oh girl to me

This hesitant door and the dawn as well
I'll open them completely and kiss you

The warmth lingers
It's not fair... the two hearts inside of you
Oh baby, make you mine

Though I wait here forever
I want to see you but can't, my girl
'It's alright if tomorrow doesn't come'
I think over and over until it hurts
This is so (the) pain of love

How far will I go before this ends?
My freedom... and on the other hand there's your love

Looking at each other, light and shadow overlap
It's two hearts embracing
Oh baby, make you mine

I'm sure that, even if the answer is far, far away
Tonight will be an unforgettable dream
More than pain

It's love that tightens around my body
Oh chain of love

Be my girl in my world
Be the one, gonna make you mine
Be my girl in my world
Be the one, make you mine

Though I wait here forever
I want to see you but can't, my girl
'It's alright if tomorrow doesn't come'
I think over and over until it hurts
'So pain of love but I'm gonna make you mine'
I'm sure that, even if the answer is far, far away
Tonight will be an unforgettable dream
More than pain
It's love that tightens around my body
Oh chain of love

I love you, oh girl
