

Adios

Twelve Foot Ninja

Adiós,

This is goodbye,
This is the last time.

You're out of control,
You've been warming your hands,
On the bridges you're burning,
All out on your own,
Your contempt
For the people who feed you,
It's unreasonable.

But it's never been my style,
To beat on a petulant child.

This is my last song for you,
This is my last song to you,
Part-time egotist,
Full-time narcissist,
Centre of the universe,
This is my last song for you,
Adiós.

Two steps forward,
One backward,
One step forward,
Two backward.

So long,
We are done,
You shoot your mouth just like a gun,
So long,
We are done,
No going back,
The damage done.

This is goodbye.
