Are you ready? Yeah!

The sun, that announces dawn
(Can you feel me, everyone?)
The world starts to move
(It's time to say goodbye)
I was waiting you know, for you
You don't need to worry, because I understand it all

Prepared yourself
Your love is to be sent outside, my love
Here we go, here we go, after taking a deep breath, that's right

Cry out, raise the fanfare
Restart cheerfully
Towards the future that we drew on that day
Can you hear? the voice that is calling you
We're about to step out, now
Shout, hurray hurray in a loud voice
Brand-new, in a way that's like yourself
It'll be fine if you just start over, it doesn't matter how many times
Because our joined hands will never separate
Let's make a promise, always by your side (hey!)

You've gotta stop, because there's scenery that you haven't noticed
Because when it's tough, there's no need to force yourself, yeah
It's fine to cry too, don't hold it in
After tears and rain, you'll definitely be able to see a rainbow

Burning with passion, your heart
If you believe, it'll come true, your wish
Here we go, here we go, after throwing away your indecision, yes

Resonating fanfare throughout the world
Replay it lightly
Towards the stage that you've been aspiring to
If your dreams aren't able to come to an end yet
Don't give up, now
Convey this to you, hurray hurray, don't lose
Shine on, please shine
Shine brighter than the stars!
Because I'm always here as your strongest ally, you know
C'mon, please smile, okay, always by your side

No matter when, I'll never leave you on your own
You're my sunshine
Hope is rising up, the rhythm in my chest
Drum it out, just as you feel it

Oh yeah!
Don't look back! all right!
Hu hu! hu hu!

Cry out, raise the fanfare (ah...)
Restart cheerfully

Towards the future that we drew on that day (someday)
