TWICE

Someday, we will come to pass
And someday, I will have to let you go
Demo owari janai omoide wa afureru hodo
Got our hearts tied up so closely together
But they're gonna part
For now, we are staying here, and I've been thinking
Now, I really know

Know there will come a time
For a bittersweet salute (I wanna)
Stay in this moment now
But we don't get to choose
'Cause we're drifting away, but don't be afraid
We'll meet at lost and found
No matter, what our love becomes
The two of us will always be like one

Hey, hey

Bad thoughts playing with my head
I'm feeling how they're driving me insane
I wish I could be like Peter Pan
No growing up, no need to pick a lane
Ain't got the luck, but we do got the passion
We're going down, but we're strong and robust
So let's forget everything tonight
Now, I know
Yeah, I know everything I need to know, tell ya

Know there will come a time
For a bittersweet salute (I wanna)
Stay in this moment now
But we don't get to choose
'Cause we're drifting away, but don't be afraid
We'll meet at lost and found
No matter, what our love becomes
The two of us will always be like one

We're like a pretty piece of art
'Til we have a change of heart
We don't have to worry though
Gonna get, gonna get, gonna get
A sign to tell us, yes or no?
But I bet, but I bet, but I bet
We've gotta trust in each other
And just play along like it's alright
With you, I've still got butterflies
Okay, let's roll the dice
We know kagira reta
Jikan to kawaranu Our fate (We coexist in harmony, stop and rewind)
I wouldn't dare to miss out on you, I tell ya

Know there will come a time
For a bittersweet salute (I wanna)
Stay in this moment now
But we don't get to choose
'Cause we're drifting away, but don't be afraid
