

STONE COLD

TWICE

Why you being stone cold?

Used to make me happy, clappy, baby, you were flirty
Now you're acting super wacky, love has gotten dirty
E-E-Every day's like a rainy Monday
Where are all the fun days?

You keep talking trash with your best friends
Then they talk to me, baby, amen
Ho-Ho-Hold your tongue or talk to me straight
Straight to my face if you dare

Look at me, I'm praying for a miracle
Wanna be happy and not too cynical
'Cause it feels that we are not compatible
I guess you are putting our love on hold (Show)

Every shade of you was pure gold
Now your heart is getting ice cold
And you're breaking down my walls
One by one, you're stone cold

You whispered promises so sweet
Now you've found someone new to cheat
You left me out in the freezing rain
And now I'm drowning, I'm drowning in your shame

I want you to know
I don't cry myself to sleep
I want you to know
That I'm over you in two weeks
We should blow it off

Look at me, I'm praying for a miracle
Wanna be happy and not too cynical
'Cause it feels that we are not compatible
I guess you are putting our love on hold (Show)

Every shade of you was pure gold
Now your heart is getting ice cold
And you're breaking down my walls
One by one, you're stone cold

To go break a heart is not criminal
But you hit me hard like a wrecking ball
You're just what everyone told
Stone cold

Look at me, I'm praying for a miracle
Wanna be happy and not too cynical
'Cause it feels that we are not compatible
I guess you are putting our love on hold

Baby, why you stone cold?
Someone else is your gold
Heart is getting stone cold, stone cold
Baby, why you stone cold?

Baby, why you stone cold?
Someone else is your gold
Heart is getting cold, cold, cold
Baby, why you stone cold?
