

Tellin' The Truth

Twila Paris

I believe in telling, telling the truth in love
I believe in telling, telling the truth in love
I believe in telling, telling the truth in love

When I really love you, if I really love you
I am not afraid to face the fact
I could be the mark if you react
If I really love you
I am not afraid to take the chance
This could be a painful circumstance
If I really love you, if I really love you

I believe in telling, telling the truth in love
I believe in telling, telling the truth in love
I believe in telling, telling the truth in love
I believe in telling, telling the truth in love

When I really love you, if I really love you
I'll be there to win my brother back
Turn the other cheek if you attack
If I really love you
I'll be there in broken honesty
You are my responsibility
If I really love you, if I really love you

I believe in telling, telling the truth in love
I believe in telling, telling the truth in love
I believe in telling, telling the truth in love
I believe in telling, telling the truth in love

I believe in telling, telling the truth in love
I believe in telling, telling the truth in love
When a brother falls
Dare to risk it all
When a brother sins
Go and bring him in

I believe in telling, telling the truth in love
I believe in telling, telling the truth in love
I believe in telling, telling the truth in love
I believe in telling, telling the truth in love
