

Dawn of the Dragonstar

Twilight Force

May the Power of the Dragon guide us
Once in a land
In a kingdom far away
A light shooting across the sky
A Dragonking was born
Bound by fate to guard us all
And live to rise and fall
Guardian of wisdom and of hope

The time passes by, years now lost in memories
Proud and ancient he must face the end

May twilight guide us with a shining heart
On the magic Dawn of the Dragonstar
Glory will find us on the battlefield
On the magic Dawn of the Dragonstar

Might of his brave heart, honour and soul
Finally fading at the end
Light of his soul ascends, turns into a star
Sacrificing for us all
His legend mighty and tall
May the power of the dragon guide us all

Starfire burning, glowing in the night
Endless hope and courage to our hearts

May twilight guide us with a shining heart
On the magic Dawn of the Dragonstar
Glory will find us on the battlefield
On the magic Dawn of the Dragonstar

May twilight guide us with a shining heart
On the magic Dawn of the Dragonstar
Glory will find us on the battlefield
On the magic Dawn of the Dragonstar
