

Rise Of A Hero

Twilight Force

I take a ride on my mighty steed
A steed of finest breed
And fighting the trolls with a mighty sword
A sword of magic steel

Sunlight shining, birds in the sky
People living peacefully
In the village lived a little boy
Dreamed of kingdoms far away

And on a night, a stormy night, he lost his way
In the storm he saw his destiny
So he left to heed the prophecy

Journey through time and horizons
Rise of a hero
Guided by fate and his burning heart
He will be the king of hope and might
He will be the heir of the dragon king

Over valleys over seas
Riding for his legacy

Armed with a sword, a magic sword
He fought his way, on a mighty steed of destiny
And the prophecy will lead his way

Journey through time and horizons
Rise of a hero
Guided by fate and his burning heart
He will be the king of hope and might
He will be the heir of the dragon king

Journey through time and horizons
Rise of a hero
Guided by fate and his burning heart
He will be the king of hope and might
He will be the heir of the dragon king
