

Thundersword

Twilight Force

Long time ago an ancient warrior forged a sword
A mighty sword of shining powers, and of hope

A simple maid
But oh so brave
Believed the stories told
And so she left
Went on a journey on the seas

Into the unknown
She travelled far and wide
Guided by the blade of thunderlight

Wielder of the Thundersword
Master of storm and fury
Holy guardian of the mighty Thundersword
Commander of water and the wind

After many years of sailing far and wide
It seemed so far away
But now her fate was sealed
She went ashore
And found a cave
A light of steel appeared
She took the sword
She raised it high towards the sky

Far from her abode
Guided by the light
Storms summoned by steel followed her wake

Wielder of the Thundersword
Master of storm and fury
Holy guardian of the mighty Thundersword
Commander of water and the wind

Wielder of the Thundersword
Master of storm and fury
Holy guardian of the mighty Thundersword
Commander of water and the wind

Wielder of the Thundersword
Master of storm and fury
Holy guardian of the mighty Thundersword
Commander of water and the wind
