

Valley of the Vale

Twilight Force

Long ago in a vale
The mystic ones lived in peace
They dwelled in the trees
And kept their treasures safe
From the hands of greed

Thievish and cunning men came
Stealing and looting their gold
How could they protect their vale?

Oh, behold
The guardian of the gold
The dragon of magic light
And so
The Valley of the Vale
Was saved again

Now those days are gone
The days of endless fear
The magic vale
Guarded by the ancient force
For eternity

Sworn allegiance to life
The trees and the spirits unite
Now, they can protect their vale

Oh, behold
The guardian of the gold
The dragon of magic light
And so
The Valley of the Vale
Was saved again

Oh, behold
The guardian of the gold
The dragon of magic light
And so
The Valley of the Vale
Was saved again

Oh, behold
The guardian of the gold
The dragon of magic light
And so
The Valley of the Vale
Was saved again
