

"That's cinema", I can't believe you even said it
Am I hearing wrong? Where has my baby gone?
Comme des garçon, you were my reason to live
I love Lennon, man, you were my art, you were my rhythm
Am I enough? It ain't enough to call me barely human
'Cause you know that McCartney couldn't stop me changing
From the very start you said I wasn't ready
I'm not invincible (invincible) and it hurts

Turn it up, be my one and only
Original, ready to rip out my heart
Barcelona, how can I be lonely?
I'm already gone, gone but never giving up

How many hearts have never beaten?
How many lovers lost in the sun?
I might be lost but I believe in living for love
Because I want it now

A prisoner, I can't reason with living in pain
I can't sing about a "Golden Elephant"
Kiss in the rain, you were my reason to live
A millennial who threw off my art and threw out my rhythm
I've had enough, I've had enough of "Clockwork Orange" living

'Cause you know that my plastic face just keeps on grinning
I get in the car, ready for revolution
I'm not invincible (invincible) and it hurts

Turn it up, be my one and only
Original, ready to rip out my heart
Barcelona, how can I be lonely?
I'm already gone, gone but never giving up

How many hearts have never beaten?
How many lovers lost in the sun?
I might be lost but I believe in living for love
Because I want it now

You were my reason
You were my reason to live
A prisoner
You were my reason to live

Turn it up, be my one and only
Original, ready to rip out my heart
Barcelona, how can I be lonely?
I'm already gone, gone but never giving up

How many hearts have never beaten?
How many lovers lost in the sun?
I might be lost but I believe in living for love
Because I want it now

A prisoner
Gone, gone but never giving up
You were my reason

You were my reason to live
