

Hey, everybody's watching
If you feel you can never go home
That's what you're like
Hey, everyday's been wasted
If you feel you just hold on for hope
That's what you're like

Maybe I'm a man who counts out all his mistakes
Watching how you did it taught me what not to break
And I can live without it, the pressure of your fantasies

You haunt me like you do
Am I even good enough?
Good enough for you?
You love like there's no end
And I said, "Am I even good enough?"
Good enough for you?

Hey, what's your favourite milkshake?
It feels like you can never make up your own damn mind
Hey, I feel like an idiot
Is that what's written over my face?
Why'd you have to wave goodbye?

Maybe I'm a man who counts out all his mistakes
Watching how you did it taught me what not to break
And I can live without it, the pressure of your fantasies

You haunt me like you do
Am I even good enough?
Good enough for you?
And you love like there's no end
And I said, "Am I even good enough?"
Good enough for you?
