

I Couldn't Miss You Much More

Twin Atlantic

Calm down, breathe out
Listen, can you hear me?
Eyes up, do you feel me?
In time you'll find
I can be your witness
I was going to be your witness

If you freak out, there's no doubt
Kindness is your weakness
Brother, you were born to beat this
You ran out, who's loyal now?
You should beg forgiveness
'Cause I was going to be your witness

Was it all worth fighting for?
Come on, love's worth fighting for

You broke my heart, you said I'm self obsessed
I did it all for you
I guess I failed that test
And if you even try to open the door
You'd tear me apart
I couldn't miss you much more

Now I'm the father, fuelled by the fire
To let my darkest hours
Be a super power
And it such a shame, there's no end game
I want a witness
Baby, will you be my witness?

Was it all worth fighting for?
Come on, love's worth fighting for

You broke my heart, you said I'm self obsessed
I did it all for you
I guess I failed that test
And if you even try to open the door
You'd tear me apart
I couldn't miss you much more
Miss you much more
Miss you much more
Miss you much more
Miss you much more
Miss you much more
Miss you much more
Tear me apart
I couldn't miss you much more
