

Instigator

Twin Atlantic

Give you all you want, I'm your teardrop operator You only listen to your heart, I'm your timezone instigator (in stigator)
Flapping like a flag, oh my God, master manipulator Dollars into pounds, snatch the crown, climb the travelator (in stigator)

You give me something to rely on
Now let me be your only liar
So fast that can barely hold on
I can be something to believe in

Something to believe in
I'd rather fail and sacrifice it all
If this is love, then I'm running
You give me something to believe in

Banging on the drums like a moon rhythm designator (Oh yeah)
You're just a shuffled card of shame and wanna shave your head later (Instigator)

You give me something to rely on
Now let me be your only liar
So fast that I can barely hold on
You were my former future, so long
If this is love, then I'm running
And I'd rather fail and sacrifice it all
Yeah, I wanted ya to need me
I can be something to believe in

Something to believe in
I'd rather fail and sacrifice it all
If this is love then I'm running
You give me something to believe in
