

Alone

Twin Shadow

Last time that I saw you
Said you'll make it up to me
I haven't seen you since
And didn't plan to
But last night when I saw you
You made it very clear
That I was nothing, that you never planned to

Isn't it unfair?
That I should be alone
Waiting for you?
I stay alone, I stay alone
That I should be alone
Waiting for you?
I stay alone, I stay alone

The first time that I met you
The last thing that you said
Is you are free, no never hold you back
From whatever feels good
So is it me first? It feels
Is it you first?
What's it gonna be?

(2x)

Isn't it unfair?
That I should be alone
Waiting for you?
I stay alone, I stay alone
That I should be alone
Waiting for you?
I stay alone, I stay alone

You can tell me not to move
I'll be waiting here for you
And do whatever feels good
I'll do anything for you
I've got nothing left to prove
You do whatever feels good and
Isn't it unfair?

Last time that I saw you
Said you'll make it up to me
I haven't seen you since
