

Bombs Away (RLP)

Twin Shadow

Angels who lost his dream
Do you keep dreaming, anyway
At this town it's just a backdrop
Then you could get away

There's a wave, I wanna ride it
Surfing blond on a friday night (you have to ride)
Breaking down onto the shoreline
That's you and me

Pressures might tear us away
Go ourselves, bombs away
I've never been so involved
We've never been so in love
Real life
Pressures might tear us away
Go ourselves, bombs away
I've never been so involved
We've never been so in love
Real life

Hold on, go slow
I dont wanna dig these tunnels anymore
I wanna walk in the path of the sun
I can't hide this, I wanna ride it

Theres a place I wanna find
Coming out of that fire like (you have to find it)
Burning down the avenues
You and me

Pressures might tear us away
Go ourselves, bombs away
I've never been so involved
We've never been so in love
Real life
Pressures might tear us away
Go ourselves, bombs away
I've never been so involved
We've never been so in love
Real life

Pressure (real life)
Pressure (tear us away)
Pressure
Pressure (I've never been so involved)
Pressure (real life)
Pressure (tear us away)
Pressure
I've never been so unsure
Real life pressures
