

Brown Sugar

Twin Shadow

Is there anything more depressing than losing it
Kicking and screaming
In your house just like a lunatic
Are you dwelling on the time that you wasted?
Looking in the mirror wishing you could just erase it?

Your skin is flushed
You're burning up
Your body shakes
You can't get up
Like rain your dreams are falling from the clouds
But you got

Brown sugar
I wouldn't waste it
Vampires
They wanna taste it
Brown sugar
I wouldn't waste it
Vampires
They wanna take you out

When I no longer had the power to seduce them
The grapes were sour
And every hour it was a nuisance
I took my pain
I took my pen
I wrote it down and thought I'd never write again

Your skin is flushed
You're burning up
Your body shakes
You can't wake up
Like rain your dreams are falling from the clouds
Boy you got that

Brown sugar
I wouldn't waste it
Vampires
They wanna taste it
Brown sugar
I wouldn't waste it
Vampires
They wanna take you out

Brown sugar
I wouldn't waste it
Vampires
They wanna taste it
Brown sugar
I wouldn't waste it
Vampires
They wanna take you out

(Solo. Cielo. Corazón. Tentación)
(Solo. Cielo. Corazón. Tentación)

You always talk about yourself
So much that the words just fill your mouth
You're choking on a dream that's in a cloud
Boy you got

Vampires
They wanna taste it
Brown sugar
I wouldn't waste it
Vampires
They wanna take you out

Brown sugar
I wouldn't waste it
Vampires
They wanna taste it
Brown sugar
I wouldn't waste it
Vampires
(People never wanna give away, they wanna take and take)
