

Locked & Loaded

Twin Shadow

4am

Think straight

Big words

Can't wait

I'm all alone phone under my pillow sleeping on a time bomb, waiting for your phone call

5am

I can't believe that your eyes follow me

First fast, then slow, now I'm ready, locked and loaded

Here I am, Locked and Loaded

Now I'm ready

Here comes the sun, a day too late, another hour, that I will wait

This spinning world, so slow to me

But at your pace, find all that you need

Four again, think straight

These big words

They can't wait

I'm all alone, phone under my pillow, sleeping on a time bomb, waiting for you phone call

Here I am, Locked and Loaded

Now I'm ready

Here I am, Locked and Loaded

Now I'm ready

If you're holding on

Let it go

If your love is strong

Let me show

Am I getting through to you

Here I am, locked and loaded

If you're holding on

Let it go

If your love is strong

Let me show

Am I getting through to you

Here I am

Locked and Loaded
