

Permanent Feeling

Twin Shadow

Took in the meaning
Counting the loss
Even the roses
Died in the garden

You didn't mean it
But Didn't you say
That Me and the boys
Just give it away

You in nirvana
Me in the rain
Me at my worst and Happy again

Already told you love
You must be breaking up

If you want me
You're the reason
For this permanent feeling I found
You've been holding out too long

If you want me
Have some faith
There's a permanent place for you now
We've been waiting for too long

Totally harmless
Maybe in vain
Take out the porcelain
To put it away

Back in the garden
Back in the dust
Why am I always
Making you run

If you want me
You're the reason
For this permanent feeling I found
You've been holding on too long

If you want me
Have some faith
There's a permanent place for you now
We've been waiting for too long

Tired of leaving
Tired of loss
Tired of lonely
Maybe I'm wrong
To take in the meaning
A little to late
Well why am I always making mistakes

If you want me

You're the reason
For this permanent feeling I found
You've been holding on too long

If you want me
Have some faith
We've been waiting for too long
