

When You're Wrong

Twin Shadow

I want you close to me
More than six degrees
Support the weight of me
(I can't live it like that) Can't live without that
Minute seventeen
You were such a drama queen
White sands and tangerines
(I can't live it like that) Can't live without that

But you offer me cold hands
Cause I'm not your man
And you've always been here
Watching me make plans
With these one-night stands
And you've always been here

You feel it, conceal it
Can't live it like that
Can't live it like that
You feel it, conceal it
Can't live it like that
Can't live it like that

You're black as velveteen
Focused on our energy
Like the sound of tambourines
I can't live without that
You're driftin' under seas
I been on my Steve McQueen
Driving, crashing everything
I can't live it like that

But you offer me cold hands
Cause I'm not your man
And you've always been here
Watching me make plans
With these one-night stands
And you've always been here

You feel it, conceal it
Can't live it like that
Can't live it like that
You feel it, conceal it
Can't live it like that
Can't live it like that

I want you close to me
More than six degrees
Support the weight of me
I can't live it like that
Minute seventeen
I can't live without that (Can't live without that)

When you're wrong

You feel it
Conceal it
Can't live it like that (Can't live it like that)
When you're wrong
When you're wrong
You feel it
Conceal it
Can't live it like that (When you're wrong)
No, you're wrong
