

Don't Kill Your Dreams

Twinspirits

Day after day I have been learning to accept who I am, but I'm still here trying to walk on these stairs everyday. Day after day, I am the same dreamer of yesterday. When I close my eyes, everything turns happy and bright!

What can I do? It's just the way that I'm living my life when I think of you: sometimes I feel like you're not by my side.

Don't be so afraid! There's no more time to waste! Don't kill your dreams, give yourself a chance to live!

To win or to lose: it's not the main goal to reach in our lives. Just be yourself: there are no reasons to change who you are.

Life's in your hands, don't throw your pride away. Don't kill your dreams, give yourself a chance to live!

Don't kill your dreams give yourself a chance to live!

Day after day, don't kill your dreams.
