

Dark Days

Twista

The definition of darkness is the absence of light
So who will survive the light in these dark days?

Ladies and- ladies and gentlemen
Aliens, anyone able to listen in
Today we eat Fruity Loops, Reasons and Ableton
BC we here to disable the pendulum
Here with a statement, sedate me, Adrenaline Rush
See they hate we even still in their mention
An adventure I sent to them, centered them
All in that scope with the target
Be no escapin', bitch
Question is what happens when you combinin' the Dark and the light, get the spark on the mic
You realize you fuckin' with the very best two
It don't matter who the next two is
Time will reveal it
I be the one that be chillin'
I be the one that be lockin' up the building
I be the one that be knockin' up the speaker
Knock you out your socks, you need a
Motherfuckin' doctor rockin' with you
We about to... kill them

As the bullets exit the cartridge
First you see a light, then darkness
Now he's dearly departed
Metal entered his flesh then ripped through his carapace
As the bullets exit the cartridge
First you see a light, then darkness
Now he's dearly departed
We all gon' die regardless
This is the plague and in these dark days they heartless

I be the one that's original
I don't wanna be timid, I wanna be pivotal
I don't wanna be livid, I wanna be critical
I don't wanna be labeled among the abominable
I be the one everybody be callin' phenomenal
(Yeah, true)
When I pull up in a battle, I'm comin' equipped with a weapon, it's full of artillery, then it be never the minimal amount of damage
I'm in a bit of a tantrum, feelin' myself in a Phantom
Feelin' myself in a mansion, fuckin' 'em up
It's so random, I'ma abandon 'em
I am a motherfucker
Ask a nigga what he want
If a nigga actin' up
Hit 'em with the uppercut
Then I'ma tear that bitch up
They don't want none of me when I begun to be doin' the Rhythm on top of the rhythm and kill 'em, it give me a rush
And if an enemy willin' and wanna get rid of my family
I wanna put 'em inside a predicament, never to get away
And it be double the trouble intended for us
And it's a bit of a must
Havin' 'em read the scripture

Give an apology, Deuteronomy
Up in the guts

As the bullets exit the cartridge
First you see a light, then darkness
Now he's dearly departed
Metal entered his flesh then ripped through his carapace
As the bullets exit the cartridge
First you see a light, then darkness
Now he's dearly departed
We all gon' die regardless
This is the plague and in these dark days they heartless

I be the one that be Gucci
I be the one in Hibachi's with the sushi
I be the one that be cocky with the groupies
I be the one that be Gotti with the loose leaf
I wanna catch a body with a new beat
