You ain't gotta tell me hell came, I sent this shit
What you talking when the shell came I meant to hit
All my enemies, please, even he can't prevent this shit
Deep pain in my name (ooh, Michael)
Nothing funny 'bout my life, come late night, real-life psycho
When the people come fo' me, bring shotguns and rifles
Everybody gather 'round, they gon' feel the sound from this night show
Better run for yo life, get up off that snow white
Told me I was low life, then I went got yo' knife
Ain't nowhere to run, I promise I will come and tie you all up [?] off yo ni

What you thought, I was a little rapper 'til you see I'm wrapping bodies lik e a bow tie
I'm venomous, pitch black car, pitch black dark in the mist
Hollow all up in the chest, the flesh, may he rest up in the piss
Everybody in this household saying please don't go out yo'
Door but he had to go and step right all up in this shit (Triv!)
Now you caught up in the elevator with the bad guy
People tell me I'm a dark soul so you better go and get the rabbi
Know that I put 'em in the mud, you don't wanna be that guy
Labeled up with the slit shit, then cut 'em up with the rat fry
Have I (what's that?) offended you? (Lil bit)

Heart should've been cold like mine, why try I ended you
Promise you will never come back from where I am sending you

Lord let us pray
Demon, I command you to release this body, in the name of Jesus
In the name of Jesus, you will release this soul
You will release the power you hold over him
You will release the evil from his body
