

Am I hip enough to hop with them?
Is it hot enough to drop again?
'Cause the game is lost, and we out of breath
And with a compass, send the oxygen
Back again like I'm in reverse
Or behind someone in a lineup
Imagining how I'ma do it
If I win a minute 'fore they say my time up
They call it a race, and my personal pace
Is idling waiting to drop it and drive
I'm a nuisance to enemies
They should have killed me, they left me alive
Ain't gonna kill me, they left me to die
Wonder why empty and hollow inside
Out of my mind, alone when I ride
And no one is sure to survive
Trust me, you don't wanna try and tell me I'm special again
Bitch, I'm a definite end
I was insane before we were friends
How you do family, usher the end
Fuck the legality, man, it depends
Polar opposites making amends
Never possible, never again
Never possible, never again

This here inside, it's infected, it grows
And those lies that they say, I wanna drag 'em below
Down to my level here, where I thrive
Where the real ones ride, and the rest can die
Hey, we roll, ride or die
Fuck you bitches hating, fuck you and the other side
Hey, we roll, ride or die
Fuck you bitches hating, fuck you and the other side

Don't worry
I got your back like a jacket in the middle of a Michigan flurry
Hell hath no fury like Twiztid scorned
I knew they'd hate us from the day we were born
I'm on a whole 'nother level, now if you tryin' to find me
You gon' need more than a shovel, Jamie right beside me
Some folks say I'm the Devil, but really what you're finding
Is me just unwinding and constantly grinding (Grinding)
We stuck a fork in the game
From the minute that we were let off the leash
And out of the cage
They say we're out of our brain
'Cause to this day we won't change
But somehow we're never the same

This here inside, it's infected, it grows
And those lies that they say, I wanna drag 'em below
Down to my level here, where I thrive
Where the real ones ride, and the rest can die
Hey, we roll, ride or die
Fuck you bitches hating, fuck you and the other side
Hey, we roll, ride or die
Fuck you bitches hating, fuck you and the other side

I stay the reason they don't go out, pack up and roll out
The reason that they keep the panic room in the house
Keep 'em guessin' fully stressin' lookin' over the shoulder
Time passes, rims spinning, hate grows colder
Got the underground sewn, my name is legendary
Destined for the hall of fame ballot like Vinatieri
I ain't no gatekeeper or a gateway, I'm a mainstay
Unfadeable to bitches trying to change me

This here inside, it's infected, it grows
And those lies that they say, I wanna drag 'em below
Down to my level here, where I thrive
Where the real ones ride, and the rest can die
Hey, we roll, ride or die
Fuck you bitches hating, fuck you and the other side
Hey, we roll, ride or die
Fuck you bitches hating, fuck you and the other side

Take your hate and let it go, faceless profile fucks
Intimidated by the feeling that we tearing shit up
Some of y'all could take a seat because you wearin' it thin
I'm steady rolling through the heat with fireproof red skin
I'm a warrior, motherfucker, so I'm ready to grind
Can't be blinded by decisions wasting all of my time
If you got it, we gon' get it, don't be losing your grip
And if you leakin' for a reason, you should just let it drip
Keep it bloody like it's wicked, get an urge for the taste
Ain't no need for slowing down, we always hunt for the chase
I know the real ones are ready and steady itchin' for more
Because we bringing back a feeling that they cannot ignore

This here inside, it's infected, it grows
And those lies that they say, I wanna drag 'em below
Down to my level here, where I thrive
Where the real ones ride, and the rest can die
Hey, we roll, ride or die
