

Broken Heart

Twiztid

I remember
Losing all control
Letting you in my heart
Big mistake on my part
Naive and seduced from the start
So let me go
Getting over my over blown
Feelings of being alone
What would you say if I told you
I still feel the same... wait

Hypnotized somewhere in front of a wall
I have built up to protect
What's left of this reckless love
Don't go giving up
So get outta here
You say it's obvious
Our love it disappeared

I remember
Losing all control
Letting you in my heart
Big mistake on my part
Naive and seduced from the start
So let me go
Getting over my over blown
Feelings of being alone
What would you say if I told you
I still feel the same... wait

Hypnotized somewhere in front of a wall
I have built up to protect
Don't go giving up
So get outta here
You say it's obvious
Our love it disappeared

Say it ain't so
There's no help for me
I should just go
Hope you find clarity
Somewhere inside of that
Thunder storm you call a heart

Hypnotized somewhere in front of a wall
I have built up to protect
Don't go giving up
So get outta here
You say it's obvious

Hypnotized somewhere in front of a wall

So get outta here
You say it's obvious

You say it's obvious

You say it's obvious

You say it's obvious
