Twiztid

They love to hate us
Now we're horribly famous
Somebody gotta be the devil
So they can feel good about
The things they do

I'll be the one you hate
Step back push me away
Scapegoat you can lay the blame
Put all the wrong on me

Feel like I'm all alone
Losing my grip
I can't keep hold
It's been a long time now
Since I felt I was in control
These sick opinions
I don't share
Pay it no mind
Like I don't care
It's been a long time now
Since I felt I was in control

What would it take for me
To try to fit in your reality
I'm the devil you know
And the one you hate
I'll be your escape

And they say that your heart is all in
I'm a fake I'm a fraud I'm pretend
I'm nothing like anything
That you think I am

And you're so confused
And you got me wrong
Judge a book by a cover
Or the title of a song
You probably never been right

Disconnect and let go
Tired of feeling my life is on hold
It's been a long time now
Since I felt I was in control
Wasting time on what they think
Knowing everything could be gone
Quick as one blink
It's been a long time now
Since I felt I was in control

What would it take for me
To try to fit in your reality
I'm the devil you know
And the one you hate
