

Dig Another Hole

Twiztid

Sorry sorry bitchy bitchy
We gon' to be here for a minute
Run your pockets all the money
We gon' to show you how to spend it
I'm your favorite villain with a target painted on me now
[?] up the situation not concerned with calming down
Say they gunning for us trying to put us in a grave quick
Probably should ignore us and focus more on their own shit
But who am I to judge it if judging them is a bad bet?
Don't become the mirror that reflects their only asset
Humanity tested, they haven't passed yet
How more empty inside and unfulfilled can the the fucking glass get
See through the situation and never past it
So your future is dead and your memory is now a classic
So many answers to the questions my mind's asking
Over the rhythm while the speakers continue blasting
As the window of opportunity keeps passing
Remember we don't die outlasting

Keep my head on, hold my breath
Try not to lose control
Everybody dies, no one cares what you think
Time to dig another hole
And let them all fall to Hell
Where people like them belong
And as they scream, we'll laugh and play this song
Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha

Hello, my name is not important
But I'm dangerous like all the fentanyl that y'all been snorting
To anyone who feels like they can replicate a portion
May be flirting with career abortion, I create severe distortion
I can make you feel a force, and your only course is like a divorce
Gonna separate your mind from your body like it was sport
I'm an addict addicted to magic, inflicted by tragic events
That been happening ever since
I put my soul into a product that they couldn't resist
And now you're just another hole I gotta dig by the fence
And I'll continue to bury 'em bury 'em bury 'em all
Dig up the hole and push you to fall
Should have never got me involved, Because my way to resolve
Is a fully loaded revolve pointed right at your jaw
Problem solved, I used to think I was evolved
But then I don't even need probable cause

Keep my head on, hold my breath
Try not to lose control
Everybody dies, no one cares what you think
Time to dig another hole
And let them all fall to Hell
Where people like them belong
And as they scream, we'll laugh and play this song
Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha

Then I'll continue to bury 'em bury 'em bury 'em all
All, all, all, all
Then I'll continue to bury 'em bury 'em bury 'em all

Dig up the hole and push you to fall
Then I'll continue to bury 'em bury 'em bury 'em all
All, all, all, all
Then I'll continue to bury 'em bury 'em bury 'em all
Dig up the hole and push you to fall

Keep my head on, hold my breath
Try not to lose control
Everybody dies, no one cares what you think
Time to dig another hole
And let them all fall to Hell
Where people like them belong
And as they scream, we'll laugh and play this song
Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha
Keep my head on, hold my breath
Try not to lose control
Everybody dies, no one cares what you think
Time to dig another hole
And let them all fall to Hell
Where people like them belong
And as they scream, we'll laugh and play this song
Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha
