

Envy

Twiztid

There's a suffering that's driving you mad
You hate the way they have what you never had Something bigger better out of your class
You can taste it off the tip of your tongue
What it's like to be the favorite son
There's no telling what you'll do to become
The ones
You aren't

Say what you want
The jealousy's absolute
You've already got
The claws digging into you
Hopelessly green
Like the sickness you feed
The greed never leaves
It just lies and deceives
Believe me
This envy
Is gonna be the end

You want what they got
But like it or not
Believe me
This Envy
Is gonna be the end of you
You're chasing their clout
You cheer when they're down
It's deadly
This envy
Is gonna be the end of you

Greed is your god
Is your god
Believe me
This Envy
Is gonna be the end of you
You never get enough
Get enough
It's deadly
This envy
Is gonna be the end of you

We're not talking 'bout passion
But the envy
What it really is
What it can be
Don't shoot the messenger
Who I am
What I got to say
Or really who sent me
We on a mission
To clear the air
Till its purified
Say what you will
But our love for this music will never die
To the envious hearts

To you we reply

Say what you want
You've already got
The claws digging into you
Hopelessly green
The greed never leaves

You want what they got
But like it or not
Believe me
This Envy
Is gonna be the end of you
You're chasing their clout
You cheer when they're down
It's deadly
This envy
Is gonna be the end of you

Greed is your god
Is your god
Believe me
This Envy
Is gonna be the end of you
You never get enough
Get enough
It's deadly
This envy
Is gonna be the end of you

Rotting away
So bitter the taste
Feed on the hate
Til you get what you want
Then you want something else

You want what they got
But like it or not
Believe me
This Envy
Is gonna be the end

You want what they got
But like it or not
Believe me
This Envy
Is gonna be the end of you
You're chasing their clout
You cheer when they're down
It's deadly
This envy
Is gonna be the end of you

Greed is your god
Is your god
Believe me
This Envy
Is gonna be the end of you
You never get enough
Get Enough

It's deadly
This envy
Is gonna be the end of you
