

Another night, I'm planted under the moon
Another vibe died, I'm changing my mood
Looking for the limelight, rolling dope and then paying dues
Worked to get the mind right, to shift the magnitude
Shift the magnitude to allude
This constant feeling of depression, like I'm useless
I know that I'm better than these Things they want to say about me
Why would I give it time?
I got no watches on me
You must be out your mind
That's why your head's so sloppy
Baby, I'm a whole vibe
Make you feel good, you don't know why
Ice cold when we blow by
Not an insecure kid, we don't make 'em pick sides

I don't wanna have to pretend or tell you something
You must have forgot about who I am
You better ask somebody if you don't know about me
Who I'm down with, who my enemies
All back, no front, we the plug, no static
Four down, one up, HD

Come one, come all, I got some people you gotta meet
Let me give 'em a call, so many different versions of Paul
I mean a lot of me y'all are living up inside of me
And I could use some help, maybe a lobotomy
(What the fuck?) But for now, let's take a peek
And we can see who's hanging around my mind this week
What's up, everybody?
My name's Dirt Nap, and I live life gully
I'll put a fist through your tummy
And I'll eat your face like yummy (Ay, ay, ay, ay)
Dirt Nap better get back 'fore I hit him with the click clack
Who wanna fuck around with the big bad? (Yeah)
Bitch, you get pimp slapped
Nah dude, it's a big sack
Rolled tight, get me a light, I wanna hit that Smoking weed all night until my lid's cracked
Sometimes I feel like I'm being kidnapped
Trapped inside of my own mind like in a synapse to find
How to navigate through the Pitch Black
Just know I'm not alone, and you even heard him on this track

I don't wanna have to pretend or tell you something
You must have forgot about who I am
You better ask somebody if you don't know about me
Who I'm down with, who my enemies
All back, no front, we the plug, no static
Four down, one up, HD
I don't wanna have to pretend or tell you something
You must have forgot about who I am
You better ask somebody if you don't know about me
Who I'm down with, who my enemies
All back, no front, we the plug, no static
Four down, one up, HD
