

If I Get Things Right

Twiztid

You offer no reason
To stay and so I'm leaving
Maybe I'll see you in another life
Or this one if I get things right

Fear less and fear arrogance
And I'm so sick of suspense
And predictable elements
Where reality blends
Then everybody pretends
That they can
Be whatever they want

In my life I take control
But the fear won't let me go
But still I try
In your life it seems like a game
As I watch you push away
And you promise me that you'll change

You offer no reason
To stay and so I'm leaving
Maybe I'll see you in another life
Or this one if I get things right

It's just a game that she loves to play
She loves the way that they never go away
Love em leave em and throw away
You made me feel like a stowaway
Harbored inside a heart of yesterday when it's no today

I'm drowning from the start
I couldn't catch my breath
Everything right left
This could be my death
Stepping off the ledge
Bad enough I'm stuck like a knife
With the memories
No more pretending please

You offer no reason
To stay and so I'm leaving
Maybe I'll see you in another life
Or this one if I get things right

I don't wanna go
Get things right
I don't wanna go
Get things right
I don't wanna go
Get things right
Leave me the hell alone, alone

You offer no reason (I don't wanna go go go)
To stay and so I'm leaving
Maybe I'll see you in another life

You offer no reason
To stay and so I'm leaving
Maybe I'll see you in another life
