Fake bitches like it pretend, business grow when we spend
Best to put your money where your mouth is
It's not spending, nah, that's revenge
'Scuse me if I'm ill-mannered
I'm below the reading level of the kids they claim matter
People want they trust back, they don't want no fucked facts
Shit we be subjected to, one-sided like a diss track
They just trying to get back, lost a few on new life
Yearn for what you hated, over once you have his hindsight
They say get your mind right, success is for the taking
They lazy, wait for fame to fall upon them, they're mistaken
We rode the wave in every turn to keep them all awakened
In the slumber of a humdrum world, some rather fake it
Than to deal with the real
The world like fuck how you feel, and we will never repent
And while the cost go despite all the money you spent
And now you're more broke today, and the economy's bent
I went to go and spend my last, now I'm sick and upset

I'm tired of feeling the way the world always wants me to feel
I'm tired of biting my tongue 'cause you couldn't handle the real
We're doing just fine, living the life that we wanna live
Fuck any of y'all's assessments of the fucks that we give Um, nada, no, y'all get none
Lot of jokes, we got tons
Y'all a joke, y'all no fun (We're doing just fine)
Y'all got old, greedy, and dumb
We still here, still keepin' it one
We still here, still keepin' it one
We still here, still keepin' it one
We still here, still keepin' it one (We're doing just fine)
Nada, no, y'all get none
Lot of jokes, we got tons
Y'all a joke, y'all no fun

We still here, still keepin' it one
We still here, still keepin' it one
We still here, still keepin' it one
We still here, still keepin' it one (We're doing just fine)

If I just stay the same, it's such a waste of my time
I'm a rebel, I'm a devil, I'm the first of its kind
I'm that one motherfucker that ain't afraid of the line
And I cross 'em like I'm walking when blind
And I don't give one fuck what you think about me
Hat cocked to the side in a black or white T
I know you're shocked 'cause I got so many riding with me
You tried to block, but I just went around the machine
I never stop, cut, stab, chop, hack me in the back, not Even for the last drop of money, I'm the cash crop
Funny how they said it was my last shot
But I don't deal in ultimatums, so I took the pass out
And I threw a bomb to my brother Jamie Madrox
And we left your favorite rapper's head up in a sandbox
Basically you're dead unless you're throwin' up your hands watch
Me and Jamie crack you with the fuckin' padlock
