

like we're gonna die

Twiztid

Had up to the point were my mind breaks
How much abuse can they expect us to take
I gotta tell ya that I'm to the point that I wanna break the hand that points to judge the blame
I wanna wash away the stink of shame
Swallow ya pride and commit to change
So many curved narratives that it's hard for me to relate and I can't think straight

Everybody livin' like they already been given the vision of a collision with death
And I wanna give you the breath that I think ya missing
I can be your inhibitions and we can just leave the rest of them dead

Hey! You call it a joke
They! You think we're a lie
You! You don't understand
We're living like we're gunna die
We're living like we're gunna die
Die! We're living!
Die! We're living!

I think you're blinded by reflections and perceptions of intentions
I hope you find it no prevention your ascension doesn't matter to me
Live like there's no tomorrow
No time to waste none left to borrow
Why waste time just sunk in sorrow
Sure life's hard to swallow get away from it all

Feeling like a landslide buried deep within it
But the time is now or never best believe it
If you sunken keep it deep inside quiet like a secret
Life they living with they eyes close they can never see it

Hey! You call it a joke
They! You think we're a lie
You! You don't understand
We're living like we're gunna die
We're living like we're gunna die
Die! We're living!
Die! We live a lie!
We're living like we're gunna die
Die! We're living!
Die! We're living!

Nothing to live for, I don't wanna die
Living like I'm dying and dying to stay alive

Nothing to live for, everything to die for Wonder what I'm alive for

Nothing to live for, I don't wanna die
Living like I'm dying and dying to stay alive

Nothing to live for, everything to die for
Wonder what I'm alive for

Die! We're living like we're gunna die
Die! We're living!
Die! We live a lie!
We're living like we're gunna die
Die! We're living!
Die! We're living!

Anybody wanna kill me better know I never die
Die! Die!
What will be left of them who will survive?
Die! Die!
