

More Than a Memory

Twiztid

On the very last day
Will they all follow in a single file line
To my grave
I guess we'll see
When I'm long gone away
And the time lapse
Outta sight outta mind
'Member me
Remember my name
You mean too much to me
What will I be
Without a memory inside your heart
Your empty heart

Much more than a headstone
The legacy lives on
Every day it grows strong
Inside your heart
(Inside your heart)
Your broken heart
(Your broken heart)
Puzzled all the pieces back
And hoping to reconcile
Beginning to aftermath
Inside your heart
(Inside your heart)
Your broken heart
(Your broken heart)

Will it ever go away
Will the pain stop rollin' like a rain drop
Fallin' off my face
Such a time waste
Hopin' for a better day
Better week better month better life better never go away
This is what I say

You mean too much to me
Where will I be without a memory inside your heart
Your empty heart
Much more than a headstone
The legacy lives on
Every day it's grows strong
Inside your heart
(Inside your heart)
Your broken heart
(Your broken heart)
Puzzled all the pieces back
And hoping to reconcile
Beginning to aftermath
Inside your heart
(Inside your heart)
Your broken heart
(Your broken heart)

Much more than a headstone
The legacy lives on

Every day it's grows strong
Inside your heart
(Inside your heart)
Your broken heart
(Your broken heart)

Much more than a headstone
The legacy lives on
Every day it's grows strong
Inside your heart
(Inside your heart)
Your broken heart
(Your broken heart)

Puzzled all the pieces back
And hoping to reconcile
Beginning to aftermath
Inside your heart
(Inside your heart)
Your broken heart
(Your broken heart)

Much more than a headstone
The legacy lives on
Every day it's grows strong
Inside your heart
(Inside your heart)
Your broken heart
(Your broken heart)
