

Never Change

Twiztid

They want us to walk away and be forgotten
No more talk today, total silence
Careful cause that route you take could lead to violence
I don't think we live the same just bein' honest

They want us to walk away and be forgotten
No more talk today, total silence
Careful cause that route you take could lead to violence
I don't think we live the same just bein' honest

Fuck goin' back to square one (square one),
Fuck it just gimme the Mehron
And A microphone that I can tear on
Don't give a fuck of what they're on
We the dopest since heron
Lookin hopeless over there huh
Got em all feelin embarrassed
An hopin they never compare us
I'm up like a terrace
I roll like a Ferris
I'm truth an I'm dare its
True Life ain't the fairest
So I live it careless
With blinded awareness
An nothing can stop me
Like I was your parents
I'm ready for war
Why they hide in the barracks
Man everyone's phony like cubix to carrots
I'd rather be lonely than grinin to bear it
So leave me alone I do not wanna hear it (do not wanna hear it)
Control is what is lost and that's true
Imma rebel with a cause an virtue
I don't do it for applause but some do
Rather get my point across: fuck you
Imma leave em at a loss when I shoot
No feelin here at all numb to
All the people that's involved I want to Go get em problem solved an I'm through
(I'm through)
(I'm through)
(I'm through)

Knowing I normally swing for the fence
Then why would I backpedal go against
Things that I said that I meant
And question my dedication on some level
For shallow participation of events
From underground way beneath the cement
I know who I am I don't need to pretend
That's why me and Paul ain't in no hurry
To make no amends
Getting half of half and paying everybody
Back triple time up on the back end
Sorta kinda wanna make me laugh
Never have matter fact wanna Thank them
For all of the shit that they showed me

And the shit that they told me
I remember they had and they hoe'd me
And the day that they bought And then sold me
Reality, renditions of vicious cycles
Never thought it would come true
Detrimental to our survival
That we separate from the one who
Run his mouth like a tennis shoe
Wanna question our gratitude
With an attitude
Like we winning the family feud
Mutha fucka I'm mad at you
For these open wounds

They want us to walk away, and be forgotten
No more talk today, total silence
Careful cause that route you take could lead to violence
I don't think we live the same just bein' honest

They want us to walk away, and be forgotten
No more talk today, total silence
Careful cause that route you take could lead to violence
I don't think we live the same just bein' honest

My heart is black
My feelings growing cold
Taking back my will and then control
Broken and abused
I reject love

My heart is black
My feelings growing cold
Taking back my will and then control
Broken and abused
I reject love

Walk away, and be forgotten
No more talk today, total silence
Careful cause that route you take could lead to violence
I don't think we live the same just bein' honest

They want us to walk away, and be forgotten
No more talk today, total silence
Careful cause that route you take could lead to violence
I don't think we live the same just bein' honest
