Twiztid

Goodbye!

We changed the game like fitted hats
So welcome all to our New Era
Nah fam we ain't giving it back
Come and take this shit if you can do better
To be honest from what I heard and what I seen
At the concerts, there's no thing to be bothered by Cause all of y'all are getting fathered, I
Don't give a fuck no, blinker on with that lane change
Anybody looking to get it better be ready
Because I'ma keep it buzzing like brain waves
Y'all better save face and placate for the payday
I just wanna hit 'em with the haymaker and they say
We the right ones for the game change
And we stay strange in a strange world
We maintain like chain gangs with a mainframe
So insane, Charlie Manson with a gate brace
So make way for the new dawn
It's a new day that we speak of
So begone, you can't keep up with what we own
This gon' be our theme song

The new, the new
The new, the new
The new, the new
Goodbye! It was something new
Bullshit sound better than they do when I thought you knew they want
Something new
Feels like they're all gone forever now, all together now
Something new
Rep the family, we always do, and that's nothing new, and that's nothing new
, and that's nothing new
Nothing new
Something new
Bullshit sound better than they do when I thought you knew they want
Something new
Feels like they're all gone forever now, all together now
Something new
Rep the family, we always do, and that's nothing new, and that's nothing new
, and that's nothing new
Nothing new

Barry Allen with fast feet
Grab hold and means to let propel hands
Cause it's hard for folks that run to try to grasp me
Endurance like an athlete
Rock crowds in the field like they got the F beat
Scream loud till my voice is raspy, yeah!
I'm on tour with the neon horns in the backline
And we rock shows every night so come catch these Shows like fields, tour bus wheels. spinning, rhyme. spitting
Energy power so I can devour insignificant cowards and give some of the year s days
Maybe some hours, true and fame will follow you
And I'm next after Karma's through
Round and round and pull me up in the chamber

Cock the hammer back, pull, and I'ma splatter you with that something new

The new, the new

The new, the new

The new, the new

Goodbye! It was something new

Bullshit sound better than they do when I thought you knew they want

Something new

Something new

Rep the family, we always do, and that's nothing new, and that's nothing new

, and that's nothing new

Nothing new

Something new

Bullshit sound better than they do when I thought you knew they want

Something new

Something new

Rep the family, we always do, and that's nothing new, and that's nothing new

, and that's nothing new

Nothing new

Goodbye!
