

Stranglehold

Twiztid

Eye, what I see inside, calculated obstacle
What I'm really like, tighten up my stranglehold
And now you're losing life, it's like a mind control
Listen for the signal of the siren that the 5 foretold
Eye, what I see inside, calculated obstacle
What I'm really like, tighten up my stranglehold
And now you're losing life, it's like a mind control
Listen for the signal of the siren that the 5 foretold

Each finger squeezes, both palms squoze
The life out of life in the back [?] flow
Makes no sense to the masses though
Let 'em sleep softly as we take hold
What's the design of this? So deep an abyss
Let me insist that you risk
It all to escape this
Twist of the wrist, take a breath, plead the fifth, so shish

I am the cause and effect of the product I preach
I am the ladder and back scratcher that apply to my reach
Nothing is out of my grasp
Those that do well and those that can't teach
Long-winded like acceptance speech
Unwelcome like my Jesus piece
And you speak of peace through your lying teeth
And you question my disbelief

Eye, what I see inside, calculated obstacle
What I'm really like, tighten up my stranglehold
And now you're losing life, it's like a mind control
Listen for the signal of the siren that the 5 foretold
Eye, what I see inside, calculated obstacle
What I'm really like, tighten up my stranglehold
And now you're losing life, it's like a mind control
Listen for the signal of the siren that the 5 foretold

Let me lead you down into a hole you cannot get out of
This is where we lose control on who forgot about us
Welcome to our stranglehold
We choke the world 'til the last breath blow
Our head unfurled where the grass don't grow
Watch everything die when the 5 come home

Eye, what I see inside, calculated obstacle
What I'm really like, tighten up my stranglehold
And now you're losing life, it's like a mind control
Listen for the signal of the siren that the 5 foretold
Eye, what I see inside, calculated obstacle
What I'm really like, tighten up my stranglehold
And now you're losing life, it's like a mind control
Listen for the signal of the siren that the 5 foretold
