

The Moon Glow Is Upon Us

Twiztid

Hahahahaha! Devotion, devotion to that which no sunlight is visible. Dusk. Hahahahaha! Sundown. The natural satellite up in the night sky and its glorious phases... Hahahahaha! ...are only light in this darkened time. Rejoice, my children. The stages from waning to waxing. From full to crescent. Hahahahaha! The moon's glow is upon us with delight. Each and all of you of this wonderful cult of night! Hahahahaha!
