

ADHD

Two Feet

Am I hurt
Or am I crumbling under the weight
Is there a difference
Everyone tells me what they draw from things
But they're lying and it's frightening
Falling from heaven to die in the street

I can't ever focus
And I hope it's just ADHD
Telling jokes is hopeless
Because nothing is funny to me
I've been trapped in a box and
You're the one who is holding the key
I can't ever focus
And I hope it's just ADHD

Am I hurt
Do I still talk too much when I'm asleep
Is it depressing
Contemplate nothing and die on a hill
That I built up with my distrust
Exercise caution when talking to me

I can't ever focus
And I hope it's just ADHD
Telling jokes is hopeless
Because nothing is funny to me
I've been trapped in a box and
You're the one who is holding the key
I can't ever focus
And I hope it's just ADHD
And I hope it's just ADHD
And I hope it's just ADHD
And I hope it's just ADHD
