

Ella

Two Feet

Ella, are you next to me
Can you steal my fee, can you steal my fee
And, Ella, are you next to me
Can you steal my fee, can you steal my fee

The winter feeling is a no go
Encapsulated by a logo
Your arm around me in the friendzone
I cannot breathe, I need some ozone

When the leaves are changing
And the light is fading
People blow their top when they think life is rearranging
Neighbors don't have curtains
Dad and maid are flirting
I don't have an A8, but I promise I'll keep workin, so

Ella, are you next to me
Can you steal my fee, can you steal my fee
And, Ella, are you next to me
Can you steal my fee, can you steal my fee

She come up too fast with a quick talk, offensive
I think it won't last 'cause I'm way too defensive
She will be the master, yeah, she will be the master, yeah
She will be the master, I know it's preemptive

I can't breathe when I see her
And everything that is on my mind
Will disappear with my last breath
With my last breath

Ella, are you next to me
Can you steal my fee, can you steal my fee
And, Ella, are you next to me
Can you steal my fee, can you steal my fee
