

Falling To Pieces

Two Feet

You're a ghost town
I'm hoping I could finally see (finally see)
The girl who you wanna be (you wanna be)
But I won't change your mind (can't change your mind)
Your attention is vague, it causes me pain
I'm falling to pieces

I'm hoping I could finally see
The girl who you wanna be

I'm alive when he's in my veins
You've got someone else, and they take all your smiles
I know I'd give my soul to fix my mistakes
But I wanna be the one that you call when there's something wrong
But I know you think I'm a fool
Let's leave it at that
Need to know why

I'm hoping I could finally see
The girl who you wanna be

I'm hoping I could finally see
The girl who you wanna be

I'm hoping I could finally see
The girl who you wanna be
