

KILL ANYONE

Two Feet

Hey, are you leaving?
You play hard and I like the things you do
Damn, left me on read
You've got plans that I'm not invited to

You've got men who wait around for you
You call me late at night when they're all asleep
You don't care at all how you make me feel
But I don't care 'cause I'll kill anyone for you

I'd kill anyone for you
Kill anyone for you

Boy, you're hopeless
Disposable, I don't even care
Boy, you're so bleak and
Forgettable, no one even cares

You've got no one who waits around for you
You call me late at night when I'm with someone
You don't care at all how you make me feel
I know deep down that you'd kill anyone for me

Kill anyone for you
Kill anyone for you

Hey, I'd kill anyone for you
I'd kill anyone for you

Kill anyone for you
Kill anyone for you
