

PATCHWERK

Two Feet

Oh, if I never get to show
Tell you all of the things I own
Fifteen hundred on alcohol
I'm feeling slow, please let me go

Oh, I'm sewing the patches right onto my skin
I'm counting the dollars to buy me out
Oh, I'm losing myself to the competition
At what point did I start to think that I'd...

'Cause I've got no soul
Live in a hole I dug
And I'll fall apart
If I don't get it

Oh, I'm sewing the patches right onto my skin
I'm counting the dollars to buy me out
Oh, I'm losing myself to the competition
At what point did I start to think that I'd...

Abusing all the functions in my head
I'll just buy my chemicals instead
You're so loud
Why are you so loud?
You're so loud
Why are you so loud?

Oh, I'm sewing the patches right onto my skin
I'm counting the dollars to buy me out
Oh, I'm losing myself to the competition
At what point did I start to think that I'd win?

(Losing myself
Losing myself)
