

You?

Two Feet

Girl

Don't tell me your problems
I don't wanna solve them
I don't really care

And you had a lot on your mind now
Your mind (your mind), it's true
So tell me the truth was it me than
Who needed you (you)

Who needed you

Girl

I'm twisting and turning
This room here is burning
There's smoke in the air

And you had a lot on your mind now
Your mind (your mind), it's true
So tell me the truth was it me than
Who needed you (you)

Who needed you
Who needed you

Tear me to pieces
Why is the time so slow
Don't got no reasons
Everything I don't know

Tell me you need it
Tell me to take it home
All that I'm thinking
Wondering where we'll go (go)

Who needed you
Who needed you
