

Feel Me

Two Friends

Let's tell lies
I know that you can read my mind
Let's just go
And soon enough we'll own the sky
And every time you stare at me
And every time you make me feel like I'm in love
Every night you lay with me
Is another moon that passes us, so I know that
When you kiss my lips at night
That's proof I'm close and so that means that you'll be fine
Every time you look in my eyes
You'll feel me there, and you know that
And every time you stare at me
And every time you make me feel like I'm in love
Every night you lay with me
Is another moon that passes us, so I know that...
And soon enough we'll own the sky
Let's tell lies
I know that you can read my mind
Let's just go
And soon enough we'll own the sky
And every time you stare at me
And every time you make me feel like I'm in love
