

Hell

Two Friends

Check into the hotel that I can't afford
I'm trashing every floor
But I don't know what for
Oh, well, I'm learning as I go
I'm diabolical
They say that I'm an animal

I like to sleep with the lights on, pee with the seat down
Call you when I'm too gone (too gone)
I'm Coco Puff crazy, my exes all hate me
Like Biggie did Tupac (Tupac)

When I die, we'll throw a party down in hell
Yeah, I'ma buy a mansion, all my friends'll meet me there
When I die we'll throw a party down in hell
So I'ma grab a bottle, raise a glass up in the air, yeah
I'ma live it up, that's the point of living
Looking like we're saints but we're really sinners
When I die we'll throw a party down in hell
Yeah, I'ma buy a mansion, all my friends'll meet me there

They prescribe me a dose of Sunday church
But my car, it never works
And that Uber got the surge
They describe me in a single word
My girl says immature
My mom says she'd prefer

"If you move out of my house live under your own ceiling"
As if I deserve a crown the king of bad decisions
But I do the same shit my friends been all doing
So if I'm so bad I guess we're all villains

When I die, we'll throw a party down in hell
Yeah, I'ma buy a mansion, all my friends'll meet me there
When I die we'll throw a party down in hell
So I'ma grab a bottle, raise a glass up in the air, yeah
I'ma live it up, that's the point of living
Looking like we're saints but we're really sinners
When I die we'll throw a party down in hell
Yeah, I'ma buy a mansion, all my friends'll meet me there

When I die, we'll throw a party down in hell
Yeah, I'ma buy a mansion, all my friends'll meet me there
When I die we'll throw a party down in hell

See you there
See you there
See you there
When I die we'll throw a party down in hell
Yeah, I'ma buy a mansion, all my friends'll meet me there
